Frequently Asked Questions

What are Hi-5 Day Camps?

Hi-5 Day Camps are part of the holiday activity programme by Stratford-on-Avon District Council (SDC) which operate during the Easter and summer school holidays.

Children are supervised by trained Activity Leaders throughout the day.

Children can take part in a range of activities, including:

- Arts and crafts: painting, drawing and papier mache.
- Sports: football, netball, rounders, cricket, badminton, athletics, dodgeball, benchball, uni-hoc and cricket.

What is Free Sport Friday?

Free open-access sports session for children, taking place from 11:00 - 13:00 on Fridays during the school holidays.

The sessions are delivered on village greens and playing fields across the district.

Children can join in for as long as they wish.

Open to children of all ages but under 8's must be supervised by an adult.

Staffing/Qualifications

All Activity Leaders have received Emergency First Aid and Safeguarding training and had an enhanced DBS check.

- Hi-5 Day Camps operate with a ratio of 1 leader to 8 children.
- Free Sport Friday operates with a minimum of 2 leaders at each session.
